

GRANT MEYER

Grant Meyer, a native of Sellersburg, Indiana, began his career with Northwestern Mutual as a Financial Advisor in 2016. Grant graduated with his Bachelor's degree in Communication, his Master's degree in Business Administration and has also earned his Certified Financial Planner® Designation.

Grant currently works with clients in 30 out of the 50 states and continues to grow his practice with a focus on medical professionals and business owners. He's been recognized by Northwestern Mutual for his ability to serve new clients and finished in the top 100 out of 7,000 advisors in 2020.

Grant strongly believes in continuous improvement and education, and the value it bring to his clients. He became a CFP® practitioner in October of 2020 and is planning to pursue his RICP designation followed by his Series 7. His team is made up of himself, his wife, Nicole Meyer, and his associate Lindsey Davis.

Grant is passionate about helping people think bigger, and he enjoys challenging those around him to identify what drives them in life. He spends much of his time with the Silver Creek High School basketball team serving as the team's character coach. On the weekends, you will find him and his wife, Nicole, on a backpacking or camping trip enjoying the simple things in life.
